

Today some non-English proficient students:

- may speak Texmex, Spanglish, or a Mexican-Indian dialect
- are not literate in their primary language
- have never been in school
- have a limited vocabulary
- lack prior experience deemed helpful to textbook learning
- speak and write using the casual register of language.